INTRODUCTION

This learning activity is the most important part in education to improve students' understanding of fiqh material through the study of the fathul qorib book. The study of the fathul qorib book is a book without dignity and meaning. This yellow book is often found in educational institutions such as madrasah diniyah, Islamic boarding schools and universities, both formal and non-formal education. (Restu & Wahyuni, 2019) Formal education is a structured and tiered educational path such as elementary school, high school, and college. While non-formal education is education outside of formal education such as Madrasah diniyah, Madrasah diniyah is an educational institution that provides teaching about Islamic religious knowledge to its students (Roziqin & Fajar, 2022).

In studying the book of fathul qorib has become an obligation that must be studied in Islamic boarding schools and educational institutions that are "salaf". Studying the yellow book (fathul qorib) refers to traditional books containing Islamic religious lessons such as chapters on taharoh, prayer, zakat, fasting, hajj and umrah, buying and selling, marriage, and so on (Shofiyani et al., 2022). So students are required to be able to translate and interpret books using the Arabic Pego script, so in this learning Islamic boarding schools use the bandongan and sorogan methods with the aim that students can easily read and understand the book. Reading and translating the book of fathul qorib is not an easy thing for every human being to learn (Wahyudi & Rohma, 2022). So to be able to understand the book of fathul qorib requires perseverance and a long time, as explained in the book ta'lim muta'alim in order to be able to read, translate the book, then students are required to understand it first. knowledge of nahwu and shorofnya first (Rahmawati et al., 2021).

Studying fiqh is a science that discusses Islamic law and Allah's law relating to obligatory, sunnah, haram, makruh, permissible which has been explained from clear arguments (Tafshilil) (Nanang & Putri, 2019). The science of fiqh in general Fiqh in general (Sugianto, 2020) studying the Shari'a, laws and rules of human life in Islam (Wardani & Samsu, 2022). practice Islamic law so that it becomes the basis of life. In the science of fiqh we study material about the fiqh of worship, muamalah, munakahat, and jinayat (Busyro 2017).

The learning strategy is the teacher in determining how the learning process will be applied in this learning. Then what has been determined and done is in accordance with the situation and conditions, because learning strategies are very important, learning strategies consist of methods or technical procedures so that students actively learn. (Syaparuddin, 2020) The purpose of this learning strategy is an effective and efficient distance learning process. Learning strategies generally aim to achieve the expected learning. (Syamsuddin, 2019)

Previous research that is relevant to this research is research conducted by Ima Maheasy, Burhanuddin Ridlwan, Syamsuddi in 2019, with the title of Study Strategy for the Book of Fathur Qorib in Improving Fiqh Understanding at Madrasah Diniyah Al-Anwar Pacul Gowang Jombang. the book of Fathul al Qarib the learning strategy used by the teacher is very good. The purpose of this learning is to make students able to read the book Fathul Al-Qarib which means pegon, able to translate, and able to explain the contents of the book Fathul Qorib.

In learning this teaching system, it begins with repetition first, in the learning of Ima Maheasy, Burhanuddin Ridlwan, Syamsuddi using the syawir (deliberation) method. With the implementation of syawir (deliberations) students will gradually be able to understand the contents of the Fathul Al-Qarib book. (Syamsuddin. 2019).
